

Willow Dam

Structural Improvements

Mead & Hunt's design for a new bridge, embankment, and spillway safely accommodates future traffic and reduces long-term maintenance expenditures without compromising the stability or performance of the high-hazard dam. Innovative foundation design and carefully engineered fill and internal drainage minimize the likelihood of dam failure. The structural improvements blend into the natural environment and enhance access to recreational areas.

Client: Town of Little Rice | Owner: Wisconsin Valley Improvement Company | Entering firm: Mead & Hunt

