Conduit Fund & WisPAC

Advance and protect industry interests

Government Advocacy

ACEC WI Conduit Fund and ACEC WisPAC advance and protect interests of the consulting engineering industry and enhance your firm's bottom line. It is important that the industry's voice be heard. By actively participating in both the ACEC WI Conduit Fund and ACEC WisPAC, we increase the likelihood that our industry's concerns are considered. Through the combined efforts of the Conduit Fund and WisPAC, the consulting engineering industry is developing and maintaining political relationships.

The ACEC WI Conduit Fund and WisPAC:

- Position the industry on state/local regulations and legislation
- Invest in pro-business candidates
- Develop and maintain political relationships
- Put the consulting engineering industry on an even footing with competing interests

ACEC WI Conduit Fund

The ACEC WI Conduit Fund allows individuals in the consulting engineering industry to contribute funds and personally direct those contributions to state and local candidates.

- Supports local, county, and state races
- Contributions directed by the individual to campaigns of the contributor's choice
- Provides credit to the individual, the firm, and ACEC WI

How the Conduit Fund works:

1. Send a personal check to the ACEC WI Conduit Fund or authorize a payroll deduction.
2. Identify candidate(s) for your contribution.
3. ACEC WI will send your contribution to the selected campaign, along with a letter that includes your name and firm name.

ACEC WisPAC

The primary purpose of the ACEC WisPAC is to support political campaigns and candidates who recognize and support positions that foster a healthy engineering community in Wisconsin.

- Supports state races
- Contributions directed by ACEC WI Government Affairs Committee
- Provides credit to ACEC WI - individuals are not tied to the contribution

How WisPAC works:

1. Send a personal check to ACEC WisPAC.
2. The ACEC WI Government Affairs Committee will direct funds.
3. ACEC WI will send contribution to the selected campaigns. Only ACEC WI will receive credit for the contribution.
