

ACEC Benefits...

Providing an Opportunity for Return on Investment

ACEC WI asked some of its members what they valued most in ACEC and then asked them to agree upon a dollar amount value for each item on the list. Here is what they had to say:

Supporting the consulting engineering industry	perceived value
Legislative voice, both state & national: Minute Man Fund (example: Statute of Repose):	$25,000/year $25,000 lump sum
Recognition of the profession through theconduit/PAC:	$5,000

Education

Conferences, including Annual Meeting:	$5,000
Project Managers Series:	$2,500
Principals Roundtable Breakfasts:	$500
E-newsletter:	$100
ACEC WI website:	$100
ACEC national website:	$250
Publications:	$250
Sample contracts:	$1,000

Business Practices

Senior Executives Institute:	$10,000
Peer review:	$5,000
HR committee:	$5,000
DSF committee (includes conference, QBS):	$5,000
Legislative committee (includes design-build):	$5,000
DOT committee (includes QBS, design-build):	$5,000

Marketing

Engineering Excellence Awards, (both state & national):	$1,000
Networking:	$1,000
Online membership directory:	$100
Being "the organization to belong to":	$1,000

Other Opportunities

Access to health insurance:	$5,000
Professional liability insurance:	$3,000
Committee service, leadership opportunities:	$1,000

yearly membership
cost:
$4,175
(on average)

yearly membership
value:
$111,800

ROI: $107,625

The business voice of the consulting engineering industry.